. This story is about two pioneer families that migrated west from North Carolina and Pennsylvania, and then came together in southeastern Kansas Territory just in time to be caught up right in the middle of the Kansas/Missouri Border War and the Civil War campaign that followed. The Border War began in the mid 1850s and actually lasted throughout the Civil War years of 1861 to 1865. The Kansas-Nebraska Act of 1854 had opened up the land to legal settlement, but it allowed the residents of these territories to decide by popular vote whether the state would be a slave or free state, and that was the root of the resulting turbulence. The Border War pitted the pro slavery group against the abolitionist free-staters. This situation soon led to organized guerilla-type raids followed by still more raids of retribution in retaliation. There was incessant pillaging, burnings, shootings, looting, and hangings throughout the long period of unrest and such dispirited cries rang out from the terror-stricken neighbors as, "The shot my husband and oldest son ", "they..."
