Married only two years, she s already found fault with her husband. Disappointed that her marriage turns out not to be what she expects, she merely goes through the motions and wishes she could go back to her own life. She doesn t know how long she can go on this way, and isn t sure she wants to fix things. Fate steps in and changes everything, and Elle learns the hard way to be careful what you wish for. Ray Tulip senses her rejection and refuses to allow her to emasculate him any further. He flips the script, Karma strikes, and Elle resorts to desperate measures to win back his love, but it all blows up in her face. Is it too late for the Tulips? Will they find out in time what those vows they took, really mean? A Beautiful Life is more than just another urban love story. It is Classic Romance with urban flair!.
