

The Boys of 67: Charlie Companys War in Vietnam

By Andrew Wiest

Osprey Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 352 pages. When the 160 men of Charlie Company (4th Battalion 47th Infantry 9th ID) were drafted by the US Army in May 1966, they were part of the wave of conscription that would swell the American military to 80,000 combat troops in theater by the height of the war in 1968. In the spring of 1966, the war was still popular and the draftees of Charlie Company saw their service as a rite of passage. But by December 1967, when the company rotated home, only 30 men were not casualties and they were among the first vets of the war to be spit on and harassed by war protestors as they arrived back the U. S. In his new book, The Boys of 67, Andy Wiest, the award-winning author of Vietnam's Forgotten Army and The Vietnam War 1956-1975, examines the experiences of a company from the only division in the Vietnam era to train and deploy together in similar fashion to WWII's famous 101st Airborne Division. Wiest interviewed more than 50 officers and enlisted men who served with Charlie Company, including the surviving platoon leaders and both of the company's commanders. (One of the...
