Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Proceedings of the Worcester Society of Antiquity, Vol. 18 Not an individual exists but what has some important part to perform in the onward march of events. We hear people say, can t do this or that. But they are doing, constantly, and the result for good is enormous. Look at our churches, educational, charitable, art, literary and social institutions and imagine if you can the vast amount of labor required to carry on this metropolitan workshop. The same work is going on in other places, only in a greater or less degree. As you have been classifying your resolves during the past week, we hope you have made generous allowance for one of the institutions to which your attention has been called. It is truly worthy of approbation and support. Its value as an educational institution was never more forcibly realized than now. It has been my fortune during the last few weeks to pass much time within these rooms, richly laden with mementos of the Aborigine, Pilgrim, Puritan, Loyalist, Patriot, and fathers of our own country, to say nothing of other nationalities represented in our collection, the naming of which might carry us nearly around the globe. While the almost numberless printed pages upon our shelves cite the thrilling stories of self-denials, sufferings, courage and heroism of the founders of this great nation. Several teachers from our public schools have visited the rooms accompanied by scholars, in pursuit of some special line of instruction. Also teachers from neighboring towns have called with their pupils, seeking information. Visitors have come to us from as far south as Virginia, west as California and a great...
